

Role title:	Service Crew Team Leader with special responsibility for Water and Waste
Outline:	To lead a team of Service Crew with responsibility for keeping the Zodiac site and services clean and up and running
Responsible for:	Service Crew team
Responsible to:	Neil Calvert (Site & Services Manager)
Main contacts:	Zodiac 09 Core Team
Appointment requirements:	None
Period of appointment:	Until June 2009 Appointment and job description to be reviewed regularly

Principal tasks

- Be part of the Site & Services Team
- Manage the running of your a services team of 5 people
- To ensure that site toilets are clean and well stocked
- To ensure that the power supply runs efficiently as and when required
- To be the primary point of contact for all water related issues and ensure that the water supply runs efficiently as and when required
- To be the primary point of contact for all waste related issues and ensure that communal site areas are litter free
- To assist in the collection and recycling of waste by ensuring that waste is managed in central locations as identified
- To manage and contribute to the build of the site with responsibility for marquees and other structures
- Assist with the control of evacuations as needed
- Ensure the well-being of all persons on the site
- Watching over any equipment and vehicles on the site

Skills & experience

- Good communications
- Work well under pressure
- First Aid qualification preferred, otherwise an appreciation of skills
- Act in a responsible manner